Sheldon Blackman Born in 1978 Sheldon is the second half of the group Eldon & Sheldon. From childhood music has been an integral part of his life. His natural love for music was recognized at an early age and nurtured by the expert hand of his father the late great Ras Shorty I, creator of the musical genres of "Soca" and "Jamo". The baton of leadership of the Love Circle, considered to be the first family of music in Trinidad and Tobago, was passed to Sheldon on the death of his father in 2000. He has now moved on to develop a solo career.
